My name is Lygeri Papafragiskou and I am a graduate of the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Athens and I recently obtained a master's degree in Tourism Business Management . I wanted to reach out to you with my interest in joining your company as an External Relations Coordinator.

I understand that you are probably looking for a candidate with previous experience in the tourism sector but be sure that my professional involvement in the service of citizens has taught me to face problems that arise daily, to communicate well even with the most demanding and awkward citizens, to work in balance and work well with my team to achieve a common goal more efficiently .

During my postgraduate studies at EAP, from the primary research I conducted between the executives and the hotel guests in the area, useful conclusions were drawn on the strategic planning to be drawn up by any serious tourism business that wants to be among the top businesses of its kind. My postgraduate studies in Tourism Business Administration as well as the elaboration of my diploma thesis on M.Sc. in Tourism Management Thesis: "Strategic hotel marketing plan. Case study: Hotel units in the Southern Suburbs of Athens » : (Grade: 9) but also my excellent communication skills that are forged daily through my daily involvement with the service of the citizen, will be a useful combination for me, in order to meet the requirements of the position effectively.

I am a hard worker and I take initiative and get things done on my own as well as with others.

I am a great communicator, motivated by any opportunity where I can learn new things or engage with people. Furthermore, I have a great speaking fluency(I am a graduate of Greek literature from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) abilities that could add value to the team.

I have respect for those in management positions, and I'm always willing to take on greater responsibilities to help out. You can be sure that I will bring these qualities to this position with your company

I would like to work as an external partner in the field of public relations or the promotion of the company's products and not on a fixed schedule because I am already a full-time employee.

I am absolutely convinced that my passion for the tourism industry, my excellent communication skills, combined with my educational background (master's degree in Tourism Business Management) combined with the knowledge of two foreign languages(English and French), will be extremely beneficial for your Business and I am certain that I will be a great addition to your company.

I've attached my resume, which further details my skills and educational background. Thank you for taking the time to review my application, and for your consideration. I look forward to speaking with you further about this opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Lygeri Papafragiskou
